

Elkhart and St. Joseph
Counties Head start
Consortium

Ms. Denise, Mrs. Ola,
(Lafayette Room 23

School News December

Dear Parents,

It's December already and January is approaching quickly. Please dress your child according to the weather and bring extra clothes. This month each child will work on four different languages to increase their vocabulary. Please remember to follow all policies and procedures at all times. Thank you for completing your parent/teacher conferences this month.

Health and Nutrition:

This Month while sitting at the table for breakfast, lunch, or dinner to promote fruits and vegetables we are going to play a game about fruits and vegetables it will enhance good conversations at the table while your child learn about colors and sorting in a fun way.

The USDA and the State of Indiana are equal opportunity providers and employers" This institution is an equal opportunity provider

Classroom Educational

High/Scope Cor Advantage Experiences: Language- Encourage child to speak in his own exclusive way.

Home based activities: Engaging in Hide-n- Seek and Finger games (to promote play with others), read daily (enjoying picture books), encourage children to gather things with shapes, and talk to your child daily. We encourage you to implement these activities at home.

Reminders:

Please don't forget to check your mail box daily for important messages like the babe Calendars, school closings, menus and Policy Council/Advisory meetings.

December 1, 2017: No School

December 15, 2017: Board Meeting

December 23, 2017-January 1, 2017: No School (Winter Break)

Elkhart and St. Joseph Counties Head start Consortium

November

Ms. Denise, Mrs. Ola,

(Lafayette Room 23

School News November

Dear Parents,

Thank you for bringing your child to school on time. Attendance is important to your child's education. Please dress your child according to the weather and bring extra clothes. We are required to go outside twice a day. This month we will be introducing two more languages to extend early learning. Each parent will receive a sheet with the new words that the children will be learning in the classroom

Reminders:

Half days: November 3, 20, and 21

Turkey raffle: November 7, 2017

Picture Day: November 15, 2017

Family Summit: November 17, 2017

A Special Note

Parents we appreciate you doing the laundry, taking the dishes to the cafeteria, reading to your child and playing baby soccer ball. Don't forget to add it on your in-kind.

Health and Nutrition:

This Month while sitting at the table for breakfast, lunch, or dinner to promote fruits and vegetables we are going to play a game about fruits and vegetables it will enhance good conversations at the table while your child learn about colors and sorting in a fun way.

The USDA and the State of Indiana are equal opportunity providers and employers" This institution is an equal opportunity provider

Classroom Educational

High/Scope Cor Advantage Experiences: Language- Encourage child to speak in his own exclusive way.

Home based activities: Engaging in singing songs from Music Together and Finger games (to promote play with others), read environment through play, read daily (enjoying picture books), encourage children to explore their up/down stairs with assistance from you and provide a place for them to run and play (moving parts of the body). We encourage you to implement these activities at home.