

Elkhart and St. Joseph Counties Head Start Consortium

Walkerton

Monthly News and Updates

The children are doing a terrific job wearing their masks.

This month we will be discussing families, Thanksgiving and why we are thankful.

We continue to work on name recognition, printing names, as well as, all other kindergarten readiness skills.

In-Kind Forms
Please return completed forms every Monday.

Absences
Please ask for the Head Start classroom when reporting your child absent and state the reason your child will not be attending.

Important Dates
November 11th
Picture Re-Take Day

November 25th & 26th
No School

Happy Thanksgiving!!!

Parent Engagement

Zoom meeting with Dr. Phil on November 11th @ 6:30pm.
Topic: How to avoid passing anxiety on to your kids. FACS will email a link for meeting 24hrs before meeting.
Contact Tracie W. with any questions. (574-850-5425)

Social/Emotional Tips

Children's books related to Resilience and Social & Emotional Health

Bunny Cakes by Rosemary Wells

Harold and the Purple Crayon by Crockett Johnson

Nursery Rhyme/Song

Hello Mr. Turkey

(Sung to the tune "If you're Happy and you know")

Hello Mr. Turkey

How are you?

(clap, clap)

With a wobble, wobble, wobble

and a gobble, gobble, gobble

Hello Mr. Turkey

How are you?

Monthly Nutritional Activities

My Bones

Children will practice jumping and develop cardiovascular endurance

Stretching

Children will learn how stretching is good for their body.

Book List

There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed a Turkey by Lucille Colandro

The Doorbell Rang by Pat Hutchins

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer